

Guidelines for Authors

The journal “Ekonomika” presents original explanations and solutions to theoretical and methodological economic problems, research, and focuses on the analysis and evaluation of the current state and development of economics, economic sectors and business strategies in local and foreign markets, which contribute to the advancement of economic science mostly in, but not limited to, the Central and East European (CEE) region. Also, investigations of practical issues of the regional economy, and evaluation of methods and solutions to economic problems may be submitted. The journal presents analyses of economic management issues, their scholarly interpretation and evaluation, which are of interest to academics and practitioners.

The journal “Ekonomika” follows the JEL classification system as a standard method of classifying scholarly literature in the field of economics. For descriptions and examples, see the JEL Codes Guide.

Authors are also invited to submit book reviews, critiques, and other informative material for publication at the end of each issue. All papers are reviewed by at least two anonymous reviewers and checked for academic similarity by special computer programs. There is zero tolerance for plagiarism in the paper.

The journal “Ekonomika” (published by Vilnius University (Lithuania), Wroclaw University of Economics (Poland) and Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv (Ukraine)) is abstracted and indexed in the following databases: SCOPUS, EBSCO, Econlit, Baidu Scholar, BASE, Cabell’s directories of Academic Journals, CORE, Dimensions, DOAJ Seal, Google Scholar (h5-index 8; g5-median 12), ERIH-PLUS, HEAL link (Hellenic Academic Libraries Link), IDEAS, J-Gate, Journal Scholar Metrics, Lituanistika, Primo Central (ExLibris), ProQuest, QOAM, ROAD, Redalyc, ScienceGate, ScienceOpen, Scilit, Sherpa Romeo, List B of the Polish Ministry of Education and Science (20 points).

Authors should submit two files to guarantee a double-blind process. The first contains the paper's title, the author's name(s), academic degree and title, affiliation (including department), address, telephone, ORCID and e-mail address of all authors. The Editorial Board does not consider papers with more than 4 authors.

The second file with the article text should begin with the paper title, an abstract, followed by the introduction, literature review, methodology, results, conclusions and policy recommendations. The abstract should have the research objective clearly highlighted, methods, new results, conclusions, up to 5 keywords, and up to 5 JEL Classification Codes. The length of the abstract should be no more than 3000 symbols. The body of the paper must contain all the necessary parts of a scientific paper. The text must be printed using a 1.5 line spacing, Times New Roman font in a common word processing format, such as Word or similar. We will not accept documents in the PDF format. It is strongly recommended not to exceed 45.000 symbols in the paper, counting references and appendixes. References to authors in the text should be in the following style: (Kohonen, 2021; Tyugu, 2003). The list of bibliographic references must be presented in alphabetic order, and the format of references should follow the APA7 Style manual requirements. For example:
