

Notes for Contributors

• The journal of linguistics Kalbotyra (3) is devoted to research in various fields of Germanic and Romance synchronic and diachronic linguistics (syntax, semantics, morphology, etc.). Reviews of books, articles, and conferences are also invited.

- Papers submitted for publication should contain the following points: aim/purpose, review of previous research on the subject, research findings/results (evaluated and validated), evidence (documented), conclusions, and references. An article is not to exceed 10 pages (not more than 22,000 characters).

- The name(s) of the author(s), affiliation(s), postal and e-mail address(es), telephone/fax number should be given below the title of the article.

- A paper written in Lithuanian should be followed by a summary (200 words) in English, German, or French.

- A paper written in English, German, or French should be followed by a summary (200 words) in Lithuanian.

- Authors who are non-native speakers of English, German, or French should have their papers checked for errors in language and style.

- The text of the summary should be preceded by the name(s) of the author(s) and the title of the paper.

- The date of submission for publication should follow the text of the summary.

- The text of the article should be 1.5 lines-spaced, font size 12 point (Times New Roman), pages are to be numbered on the right-hand side at the top of the page. Cited forms of the language discussed should be set in italics, translation and glosses are to be provided for all the cited forms of ancient/rare languages and placed within single quotation marks. All the examples should be numbered throughout the paper. Footnotes are for notes only and should be numbered consecutively throughout the text.

- References in the body of the text are to be made by giving in parentheses the last name of the author followed by the year of publication, and, where relevant, the page(s) referred to, e.g.: (Aijmer 1980, 19-21) or (Aijmer 1980; Bolinger 1965). If letters of Slavic or some other non-Roman script are used, the names and titles should be transliterated. A list of references at the end of the text should follow the model below, e.g.:

Ambrasas V. 1990. Sravnitel'nyj sintaksis pričastij baltijskich jazykov. Vilnius.

Schleicher A. 1851. Compendium der Vergleichenden Grammatik der Indogermanischen Sprachen. Weimar.

Aijmer K. 1996. Swedish Modal Particles in a Contrastive Perspective. Contrastive Semantics And Pragmatics: Meanings and Representations ed. by K. Jaszczolt and K. Turner, vol. 1, 393-427. Oxford, N.Y., Tokyo.

Bolinger D. 1965. The Atomization of Meaning. Language 41, 555-573.

- An abstract written in Lithuanian (200 words) and its translation into English, German, or French must be provided on a separate sheet.

- On submission two printed copies of the article and a diskette (MS Word 98 etc.) should be submitted.

- Papers are read by two reviewers.

Deadline for submission to Kalbotyra 56 (3): 25th April 2006.
